Without going into detail (languages, times etc.) following is what Islamabad could provide in way of coverage not available elsewhere:

AFGHANISTAN

Full coverage of the Kabul Domestic Service First Program and full or substantial coverage of the Second Program. Gulf can provide only partial coverage of the former (daytime coverage is not reliable) and very limited coverage of the latter.

IRAN

Partial coverage (morning/evening) of several regional stations -- Zahedan, Mashad, Bijand, Jiroft, Taybad -- which cannot be covered at all or as fully by Gulf.

USSR

Partial coverage of several regional stations -- Ashkhabad, Dushanbe, Frunze, Alma Ata, Chimkent, Fergana, Taldy-Kurgan, Kzyl Orda -- which cannot be covered ^{all} or as fully by Gulf.

PAKISTAN

Full to substantial coverage of Karachi and other regional domestic services -- Islamabad, Rawalpindi, Peshawar, Lahore; ~~Multan, Quetta~~ partial coverage of other regional radios -- Multan, Quetta, Hyderabad. Gulf coverage limited to morning/evening.

KASHMIR

Full coverage of both Jammu and Srinagar domestic services and Azad Kashmir Domestic Service. Gulf has ~~no~~ no coverage of former and limited coverage (evening) of latter.
